

We would like to advise all parents that a few of the nursery children have been diagnosed with chicken pox. Please refer to the Health Protection Scotland website and your GP if you suspect your child may have chicken pox and for exclusion guidelines. We appreciate your co-operation in this matter and request that you keep the nursery informed if your child is ill.