

The children are learning about dressing up and how to use their own ideas to create costumes and how they move when wearing these costumes. We would be grateful if parents could hand in any old clothes, shoes, sheets, material and any items that could possibly be used by the children to create costumes.

Thank you.